Judith M. Shoemaker, DVM, is an internationally known practitioner and educator in integrative veterinary medicine and therapy. Her unique practice utilizes chiropractic, acupuncture, traditional Chinese medicine, homotoxicology, homeopathy, nutrition, physical therapy, and other alternative modalities. Her patients include top competitors, service and search and rescue dogs, as well as many wonderful companions. In honoring the significance of the human-animal bond, Dr. Shoemaker provides information and professional referrals for both ends of the leash to benefit from holistic care and allow for optimal health.
